STARBURST

TEAR 'EM TO PIECES!

HOMECOMING THEME IS "CANDY"

JUNIORS WIN JUG!

The Juniors took the float jug this year using the theme "Payday for the Panthers". The Seniors chose to use Powerhouse with the slogan "Overpower 'Em". The Sophomores used Reese's Pieces with the motto being "Tear 'Em to Pieces" and the Freshmen chose Starburst and "Blast Off to Victory".

EXPO

1980

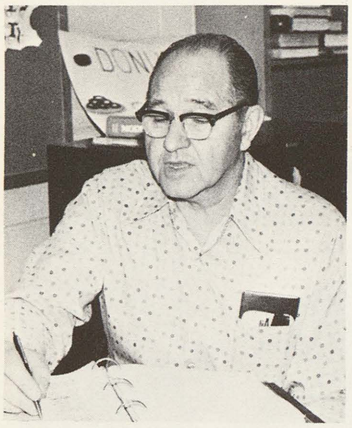

The first annual Expo was held on May 28, 1980. A great deal of work went into putting it together. On the Expo committee were: Mr. Hauck, Mrs. Vale, Mrs. Hrabec, Mrs. Lafferty, Mr. Mace, and Mr. Matzke. They did a great job in getting everything organized.

Many classes exhibited projects. These were on display the day for the students to see as well as in the evening.

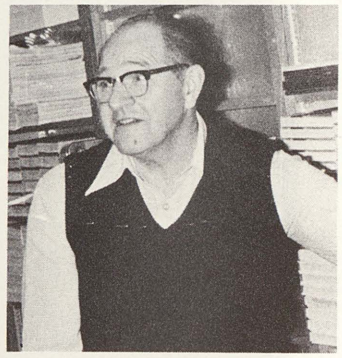

The program that evening consisted of musical selections, forensics presentations, and a fashion show. The Drama Club also presented a portion of their play.

The event turned out to be a great success. All who participated, whether by exhibiting a display or performing in the program, were presented with a certificate.

IN HONOR OF

Mr. Jim Kavanaugh

The staff of the 1980 Panther Tales would like to dedicate this book to Mr. Jim Kavanaugh. He will retire this year after spending 11 years in the Birch Run School System. During his years on the staff, Mr. Kavanaugh served as Assistant Administrator and Bookroom Supervisor. Additionally, he was Yearbook Advisor for the 1972 through the 1979 editions.

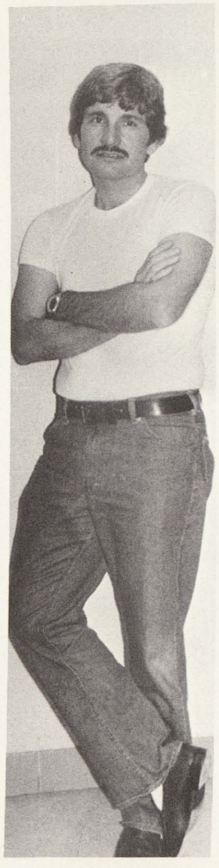

You've been a good part of our high school years, Mr. Kavanaugh. We will all miss you and your bright smile. Good luck to you in the years to come.

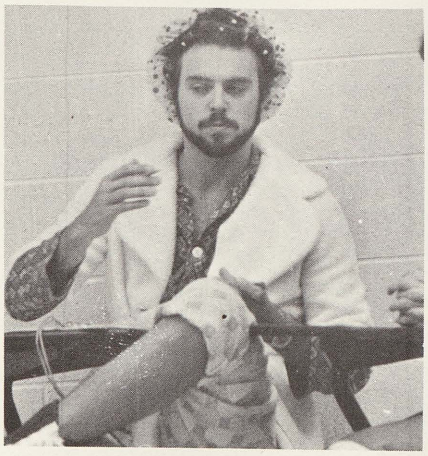

Spirit Week

CLASS B CHAMPIONS AGAIN!!

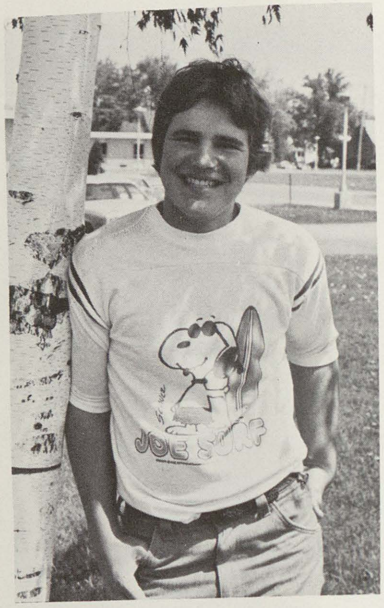

The 1980 Forensics season ended May 3rd. There were a lot of combined efforts and determination of the entire Panther Team. The six people who went to state were: in first place in Radio News Casting, Joe LaFreniere; seventh place in Story Telling, Joanne Dundas; Kim Belill finished tenth in the state in Impromptu Speaking; Carolyn Trinklein captured seventh in Original Oratory; Dana Bullard took thirteenth in Humorous Interpretation; and Mark Moore was fourteenth in Radio News Casting.

Once the total points were added up in Class A, Grand Blanc was the big winners, while in Class C-D Charlevoix.

The top three finishers in Class B were: in third place Portage Norhtern; in second place Mars hall High School; and in first place again this year the BIRCH RUN PANTHERS!! The state trophy will be staying here at Birch Run. Congratulations Forensics Team!
